Minimum Charges and Exceptions

The minimum annual charge for a band A organisation is £575. This comprises the annual Centre Recognition fee of £285 and a payment of £290 to be offset against learner fees within that academic year. In exceptional circumstances, an organisation may wish to put their Centre Recognition in abeyance for a year. In such cases they may pay just the Centre Recognition fee and register no learners in that year.

Learner Registration Fees

Learner registration fees are based on the intended number of credits a learner is expected to achieve. One credit is 10 hours of notional learning time. The fee is levied at the point of registration of learners. A late fee may apply to registrations received after the specified deadlines.
